EXETER DAY SCHOOL

March News

From the Principal

Mud season has arrived!

Temperatures are warming (at least temporarily) and the snow is melting leaving us with puddles and mud on the playground. We do want to get the children outside so please make sure they are wearing boots everyday. They will continue to need snow pants until all of the snow is gone. If your child comes home and says that they didn't play outside it is probably because they have music that day and there just isn't enough time in the day. They may come home muddy and a little wet so dress them accordingly.

If your child comes home in his extra clothes please remember to send in a replacement set of clothing. If you sent in shorts or your child has had a growth spurt since September you may want to send in a new set anyway.

Illness has declined since we came back from break. Remember to keep your child home with colds, fevers and coughs. Some parents have inquired about our cleaning process. We have a cleaning company come in everyday after school. They sanitize the door knobs, light switches, sinks, bathrooms etc. every day. They are very thorough. Table tops are washed several times a day.

Out of the Mouths of Babes

A little girl came back to school after vacation with pierced ears. She announced that she had her "ears peeled."

"Do you know what starts with H?" asked a boy. "No what?" the teacher replied. "A" was his answer.

Summer Camp

We still have openings in all of our summer programs. The first session begins June 17th and the last one ends Aug. 14th. It is now open to the public so if you want your child to attend you should register as soon as possible.

If you are undecided about camp and would like some names of families who have attended, please give us a call.
